

Year 3 : Rich Texts

Stone Age to Iron Age	Amazing Me!	Volcanoes and Earthquakes		Full Steam Ahead	Flower Power
Simple and compound sentences using adverbs and prepositions	Using complex sentences introducing 'although'	Inverted commas	Introduce paragraphing		CONSOLIDATION

Describe a scene from the story.	Character description of the Wild Thing	Literacy shed – animation (SOAR) Retell the animation, including simple speech.	Retell the end of the story, including speech.	Retell the story of the landslide	Write a diary entry from Joe.
	Non chronological report about their own imaginary 'wild thing'		Interview of character: questions given to children in present perfect.	Write a letter from the children to their father	Write a letter to persuade Mr Rock to not cut down The Owl Tree.

Write a recount of a typical day	Retell a chapter of the book.	Continue the story of the Secret Explorer, including speech	Retell the ending of the story.	Write a narrative about a child's first trip on a steam train.	Retell a chapter from the book.
Recount of trip to Butser Ancient Farm		Write a short narrative about a volcanic eruption, including speech.		Write a thank you letter to the Watercress Line.

Year 3 : Guided Reading texts

	Stone Age to Iron Age	Amazing Me!	Volcanoes and Nepal		Full Steam Ahead!	Flower Power
Read the whole text throughout the half-term
Non-fiction books and articles					How Have Our Railways Changed?: BBC Bitesize online article
Extracts from fiction, picture books and narrative poetry	Stone Age Boy, Satoshi Kitamura	Where the Wild Things Are, Maurice Sendak All About Ella, Sally Nicholls Funnybones, Allan Alberg	Interview with a Tiger, Andy Seed The Top of the World: Climbing Mount Everest, Steve Jenkins	Animal Diaries: Eagle, Steve Parker Himalaya: The Wonder of Mountains that Touch the Sky, Soledad Romero Marino	The Railway Children (abridged version) 'From a Railway Carriage', Robert Louis Stevenson	RHS: Let's Get Gardening Walking the Bear, Nicola Davies